

Mark statements that are true according to the information from the video story.

1. There are mainly two types of payment cards: debit and credit.
2. Debit money is the money that comes from a bank account.
3. When you use credit cards, any bank lends you this money for free.
4. Each month you are to pay the interest rate for the card usage.
5. As long as you pay off balance in full by the necessary time you pay no interest at all.
6. There is no cashback offered to the credit cards.